BACK SEAM

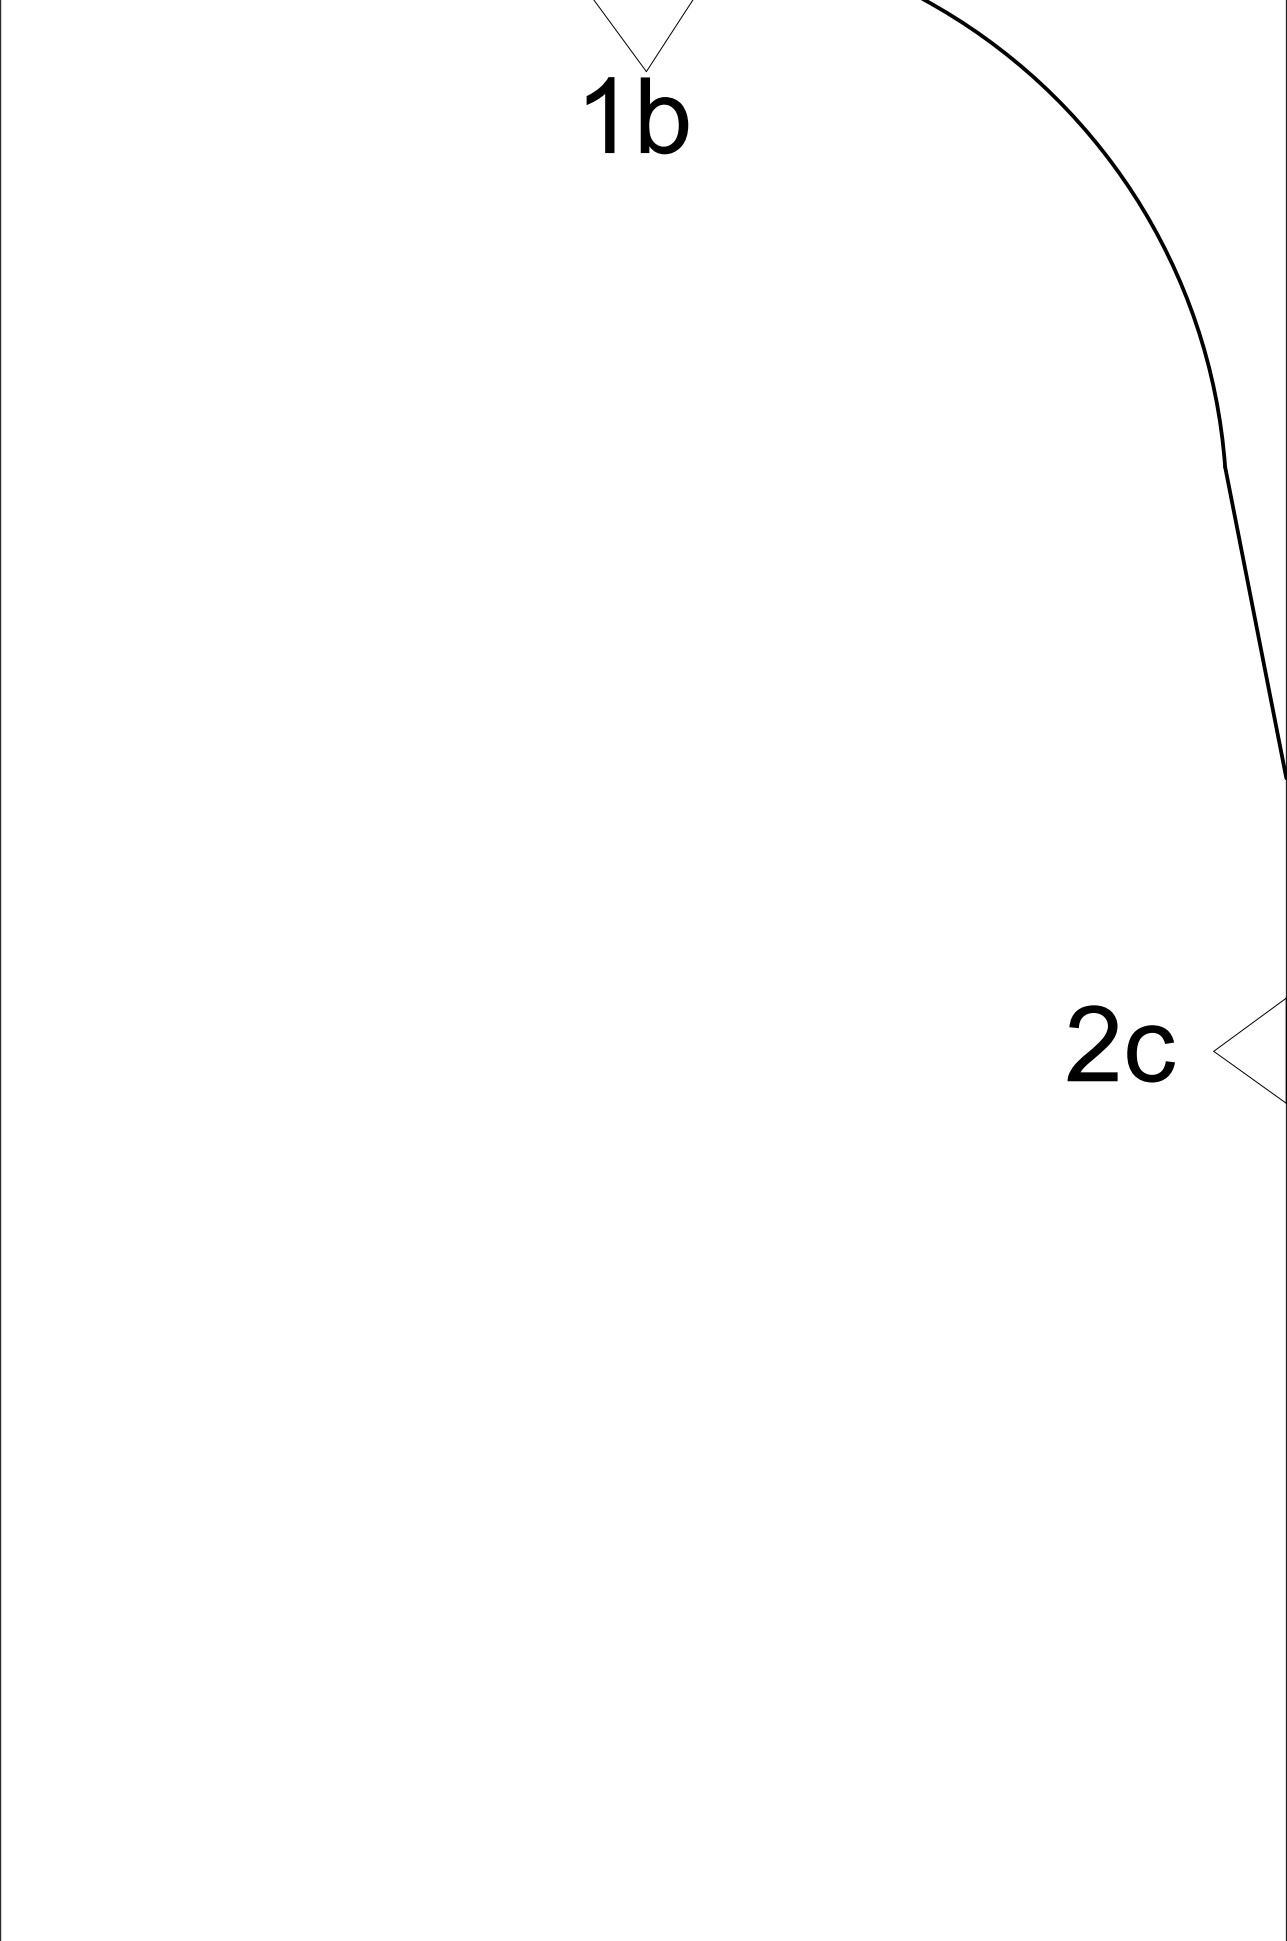

A diagram of a rectangular sheet, likely a piece of paper or cardboard, with two vertical dashed lines indicating fold lines. The sheet is divided into three vertical sections. The leftmost section is labeled '8b' with a small triangle pointing to the left edge. The top center section is labeled '9a' with a small triangle pointing to the top edge. The bottom center section is labeled '9b' with a small triangle pointing to the bottom edge.

A diagram of a rectangular sheet, likely a template for a book cover or endpaper. It features two vertical dashed lines, one on the left and one on the right, representing fold lines. The label '8c' is positioned to the left of the left dashed line. The label '9b' is located at the top center, above the top edge, with a small downward-pointing triangle above it. The label '9c' is located at the bottom center, below the bottom edge, with a small upward-pointing triangle below it.

The diagram shows a pattern piece for a sleeve hem. It is a trapezoidal shape with a dashed line along the top edge. Above the dashed line, there are two small downward-pointing chevrons. The text '3c' is centered above the main body of the piece, and 'SLEEVE HEM' is printed in large, bold, capital letters across the middle. On the right side, the text '4d' is followed by a small leftward-pointing chevron.
